

FIG. 1. Effects of raising glucose from 3 to 20 mM on the release of insulin, glucagon, and somatostatin from a batch of 15 perfused human islets. The hormones were measured in 30-sec fractions of the perfusate. Sampling was interrupted during 30 min as indicated by the dashed line. Data are the mean \pm SE of 15 islets.